

Supporting School-Force Makes Good Business Sense

The School-Force Business Donor Program establishes a relationship between local business and the School-Force community, allowing you to help Belmont and Redwood Shores children while receiving access to:

- Reach out to over 2000 families in the community
- Focused effort by School-Force to recognize local businesses in 2011
- Visibility via logo sign reflects your commitment to the school community
- Directory that will be distributed to parents and community members
- The opportunity to showcase your unique business as host to a School-Force event
- Develop relationships with the community at a time of great need

SF events during the year

Unique business opportunities are available when you support specific School-Force events during the year such as your logo on event banners, individual stage banner, and your logo on flyers sent to all district families. Contact community@schoolforce.org for more information about supporting these events:

- ✓ Save the Music Festival – October
- ✓ Reading Power Read-a-thon – Spring
- ✓ Casino Royale – Spring

- ✓ Be informed
- ✓ Be involved
- ✓ Be invested
